

BECOME A PITTSBURGH CHANGEMAKER TODAY

Prestigious National Recognition

Acceptance into the ChangeMakers program is by invitation only

Networking with Like-Minded Peers

ChangeMakers join an elite group of rising young leaders committed to making a difference in the Pittsburgh Region

Cultivating the Next Generation

ChangeMakers serve as ambassadors for the Students In Action program that arms youth with lifelong skills in leadership and service

What is a ChangeMaker?

The Multiplying Good ChangeMakers program is a series of volunteer, networking, fundraising, and celebration events that take place over a 12 to 16 week period. This prestigious opportunity, open to young professionals across the SWPA Region, recognizes a group of individuals who have demonstrated a commitment to servant leadership and the potential to truly move Pittsburgh forward.

Why ChangeMakers?

- Recipient of a prestigious Jefferson Award - the nation's highest honor for service and volunteerism established in 1972 by former First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis.
- Networking opportunities with influential Pittsburgh and Southwestern Pennsylvania companies and organizations
- Gain access to valuable continuing education opportunities for ChangeMakers alumni after the program concludes.
- Mentoring opportunities for Pittsburgh Students In Action program. Empowering high school students with tools they need to be successful in college and the workforce.
- Interested in volunteering as a nonprofit board member? Two ChangeMakers each year are selected to represent their cohort on the Multiplying Good Pittsburgh Board.
